Amendment to Chapter 11, Registration

Chapter 11 of the CSFRA Regulations is amended to add a new Section E to read as follows:

“E. Exemptions.

If a Landlord provides information that the Rental Unit is exempt, the CSFRA Rent Stabilization Program Administration (“Administration”) shall verify the exemption.

1. Denial of Exemption. If it is determined that the exemption does not apply and the Rental Unit is covered by the CSFRA, both Landlord and any affected Tenant(s) shall be provided with notice of the determination, including an explanation of the basis of its determination. A Landlord shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of mailing of the notice of determination to file an objection with the RHC, or its designee, and request a hearing before a hearing officer. Within forty-five (45) days of receipt of a Landlord’s written objection, a hearing shall be scheduled before a Hearing Officer pursuant to the process in Chapter 5 of the CSFRA Regulations.
2. Confirmation of Exemption. If it is determined that the exemption does apply and the Rental Unit is not covered by the CSFRA, both Landlord and any affected Tenant(s) shall be provided with a notice of the determination, including the type of exemption claimed. Any affected Tenant(s) shall have fourteen (14) days from date of mailing of the notice of determination to file an objection with the RHC, or its designee, and request a hearing before a hearing officer. Within forty-five (45) days of receipt of a Tenant’s written objection, a hearing shall be scheduled before a Hearing Officer pursuant to the process in Chapter 5 of the CSFRA Regulations. If more than one (1) affected Tenant files an objection, the RHC or its designee may consolidate the objections in accordance with Section J of Chapter 4 of these Regulations.
3. Right to Respond to Objection. An affected Landlord or Tenant shall have the right to submit a written response to the objection at any time prior to ten (10) days before the Hearing. Additionally, any affected party, or the party’s proxy or representative, shall have the opportunity to participate in the Hearing.
4. Program Fee. During the time that the RHC or its designee is reviewing a claim for exemption pursuant to this section, deadline periods for the payment of annual rental housing fees shall be suspended. If the Hearing Officer

- determines that Rental Unit is not exempt, the Landlord shall pay the annual rental housing fee within thirty (30) days after the time to file an appeal expires and the Hearing Officer's decision becomes final.
5. Hearing and Decision. Any hearing on an objection to an exemption determination shall be conducted in accordance with the hearing procedures outlined in Section E of Chapter 5 of these Regulations. Additionally, the Hearing Officer's Decision on an objection to an exemption determination shall comply with the following requirements:
 - a. The time for issuance of the Hearing Officer's Decision under this Section E shall comply with deadline in Section F.1.a of Chapter 5 of these Regulations.
 - b. The contents of the Hearing Officer's Decision under this Section E shall comply with the requirements in Section F.1.c of Chapter 5 of these Regulations.
 - c. The Hearing Officer's Decision under this Section E shall apply to any affected Tenant regardless of whether the Tenant filed an objection or was included as a party to the Landlord's objection.
 6. Appeal of Hearing Officer's Decision. In accordance with Section F.1.b and Chapter 5 of these Regulations, a Hearing Officer's Decision under this Section E shall be final unless either Party timely appeals it in accordance with Section H.1 of Chapter 5 of the Regulations."

Section E, Noncompliance, of Chapter 11 is renumbered to Section F.
