Exhibit A

Community Stabilization and Fair Rent Act Regulations
Amendment to Chapter 7, Procedures for Annual General Adjustments

Section B.2.b of Chapter 7 of the CSFRA Regulations is amended as follows:

“2. Banked AGA.

Mandatory Notice to Tenant. In addition to the notice requirement identified in California Civil Code Section 827, or any successor legislation, any notice requesting an increase in rent greater than the AGA identified for the current calendar year must include the following:

- a. Identification of the requested increase in monthly rent due, including the actual increase as well as the calculation of the dollar increase as a percentage of the rent due immediately prior to the imposition of the proposed rent increase; and
- b. The following text, in at least 12-point font (if the notice is printed):

“The rent increase requested in this notice exceeds the annual general adjustment authorized for the current year. Landlords may save (“bank”) annual general adjustments that were not imposed in previous years and implement them with the current annual general adjustment in accordance with the Community Stabilization and Fair Rent Act, Section 1707, and implementing regulations. Rent may only be increased once every twelve (12) months, and rent increases cannot exceed ten percent (10%) of the rent actually charged in the previous year. Tenants have the right to petition the Rental Housing Committee (RHC) for relief if this rent increase will cause an undue hardship. The RHC defines a hardship based on either household income or if the household spends fifty percent (50%) or more of household income on rent, with specific definitions for households with children, seniors, or persons with disabilities or who are terminally ill. If you believe the rent increase requested in this notice is incorrect, excessive, or causes an undue hardship, you can: (a) contact your landlord to discuss the increase; and/or (b) file a petition with the RHC. For more information about petitions or the hardship process, contact the Mountain View Rental Housing Helpline at 650-903-6136 or MVRent@mountainview.gov.”
